

New Mission Systems - Jason & Karyn - India

Jason and Karyn have been working in India since spring of 2006. Jason has been attending school there and they have established several Bible Studies with neighbors and new friends, working with native missionary, Leonard Thompson. They are currently home on furlough, Jason is receiving additional training here in the states before they return to India early 2009. They are graduates of Ozark Christian College in Joplin, MO.